"The Book of the Nation."

THE OWEST MAGAZINE IN AMERICA. Published by the present Proprietor for Twenty Years. EDITED BY MRS. SARAH J. HALE.

Comparison between "Godey" and the other Philadelphia Monthlies. In 1849, the Lady's Book gave 916 pa which is 116 more than one, and 148 pages more than the other Philadelphia monthly —

He gave 281 engravings—among which were 20 colored, and 93 fell page—which is 136 more than one, and 180 more than the other. We gave, in each number, a piece of music, pointed separately on tinted paper, making 24 pages, or 12 pieces in a year. To show the e spness of the Lady's Book, this same music, if bought separately at the music stores, would cost exactly the price of the whole year's subscription-83. Some of our peculiar Embellishments.

Ladies' Work Table—which comprises every kind of Needlework, Embroidery, Kritting, Netting, Crotchet, Patterns for Caps, Chemisettes, Children's clothes, Wedding Dresses, In-door and Out-door cos-

A New Novel, by W. Gilmore Simms; will be one of the features for 1850.

OUR READING MATTER.

We have long stood at the head of the magazine world for our contributions; they are always moral and instructive, and such racy in a remarkable degree. -N. Y. Commeras may be placed before a family without cial Adv. hesitation. This department is under the control of Mrs. Sarah Josepha Hale, whose attraction as it advances in age. It exhibits a name alone is a sufficient guarantee for the monthly variety of contributions unsurpassed propriety of the Lady's Book. We may say the same of our engravings. We will never, as is done by a cotemporary, publish indecent model-artist pictures, such as no parent would allow a child to look at.

GODEY'S LADY'S BOOK for 1850 shall surpass that of 1849, and exceed all magazines-past, present and to come.

Terms, Cash in advance, postage paid.

While venturing this step in the universal march of periodicals, let it be understood that I am not anxious to de-1 clare myself a mental Joan of Are. bearing special mission to save the people in their holy war against iguorance and wrong. I simply prepare a plain feast where the viands will be of my own choosing and some of my own dressing. *I hope it what I proved be wholesome and relishing, I shall have a host of friends at my board whose kind words and cheerful encouragement will keep me in a proud and bonorable position at the head of the table. Ihave been too long known to those whom I address to feel strange in addressing them. My earlist rhymes; written with intuitive impulse before hacknied experience or politic judgment could dictate their tendency, were accepted and responded to by those, whose good word is a "tower of strength." The first active breath of nature that swept over my beart strings awoke wild but earnest inclodies which I dotted down simple notes. When I found in that others thought the tune worth learning-when I heard my strains hummed about the sacred alters of domestic firesides, and saw old men; bright women and young children scanning my ballad strains, then was I made to think that my burning desire to pour out my soul's measure of music was given me for a purpose. My young bosom throbbed with rapture, for my feelings metwith responsive echoes from honest and genuine humanity, and the glory of Heaven seemed partially revealed when I discovered that I held power over the affections of earth.

The same spirit which prompted my first attempt will mark my present one. What I have done has found generous support; let me trust that I may do will still meet the kind hand of belp. have full confidence, and believe if I ofterest withe Knickerbocker, by sending for them the combination of utility and amusement, they will freely take the wares I bring, and not think worse of me for mixing freely with them in the
